I William A. Lohrbach, of Cape George in the County of Antigonish, Province of Nova Scotia, Esquire, do make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills, codicils and testamentary instruments by me at any time heretofore made.

First I direct that all my just debt and funeral expenses be paid as soon as practicable after my decease.

Second I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife Adelaide B. Lohrbach all of that certain parcel of real estate comprising my farm at Cape George, Antigonish County, Nova Scotia, together with improvements thereon and all household furniture and other articles of household use and all other articles of personal property and in connection therewith, absolutely and forever, provided only that my said wife does not predecease me and that we do not both die as the direct result of a common accident or disaster.

Third I give and bequeath all of my jewelry, clothing and other articles of personal use and any automobile which I may own at the time of my death to my wife Adelaide B. Lohrbach provided only that my said wife has not predeceased me and that we do not both die as the direct result of a common accident or disaster.

Fourth I give and bequeath the sum of seventy thousand dollars ($70,000.00) to my wife Adelaide B. Lohrbach, but in the event that she should predecease me or that we should both die as the result of a common accident or disaster and then should survive us issue of our marriage, then I give and bequeath the sum of seventy thousand dollars ($70,000.00) to or among such issue in equal shares, ~~per stirpes~~
